

Dictation #1/ spring session, 2003

1. I used to go to Portola Middle School, but now I am a senior at El Cerrito High.
2. Every day I have a lot of problems getting to calculus by the time the bell rings even though I leave the BART station on time.
3. Mary cut algebra at least twice a week; consequently, she failed the class and had to take it over in summer school.
4. James said, "My grandmother is sick so I can't make it to tomorrow's game. Would you like to have my ticket?"
5. The teacher was delighted with your book report on All the Pretty Horses, Michael, and plans to give you an A on the paper.
6. I knew them when they lived with their father in Richmond, California, but it's been a long time since I have seen them.
