If it wasn't for my mom I wouldn't have learn how to write. My mom is known as one of the smartest person in our house, and I'll never forget how she taught me to write stories. My mom is real intelligent, she's tall, light skinned, and she has nice soft hands, and she love to help people. My mom is very nice to get long with and she has nice feelings she doesn't get mad easy.

She 's very creative and loves to sit down and think. She wears pants suits all the time it's her favorite, she hate to wears dresses. Her voice is a slight but heavy tone and she he soft skin the kind that will make you want to touch all the time. My mom has a very nice personality, great sense of humor, and she is a great cook.

My mom is the best cook in our family she gets it from my grandmother. My mom also has a bad of her but my brothers and I don't hardly see it the only time is when her boyfriend make her mad. Mom loves to provide for people and she loves children.
